Maintenance of Effort (MOE) (communication)

The federal law requires LEA maintain their local funding effort for special education services and not supplant local funds with federal funds. The LEA must expend at least the same total or per capita amount of local or local and state funds combined for children with disabilities as was spent the prior year.
Judy Smardo is contacting superintendents/board clerks to process data to complete and submit state MOE report. Due date for submission is December 8th.

Disability Mentoring Day (communication)

On Wednesday, November 29, 2017, we will once again be hosting the Disability Mentoring Day (DMD) for Southeast Kansas. This event is open to Freshman through seniors and will be held at Pittsburg Memorial Auditorium from 9 am to 1:30 pm. This year is the 11th year the DMD, a national event, has been held locally. DMD is designed to promote career development for students with disabilities.

Stations will be set up to cover topics pertinent to obtaining employment and post-secondary education. The stations will address topics such as how to fill out a job application, dress code and manners, preparation for an interview, and social media responsibilities. In addition, we will be holding mock interviews. Seniors will have the opportunity to tour one of three locations: Wal-Mart, Vinylplex, and SEK Career and Technical Education Center. Colleges and Universities will be available and students are encouraged to voice questions and concerns about furthering their education.

In Kansas 60 days is 60 school days per K.A.R. § 91-40-8(f)-(g). In Kansas, the dates measured to determine compliance with Indicator 11 are the number of days between the date that consent for an initial evaluation is received and the date that eligibility is determined, inclusive. Altamont Grade School
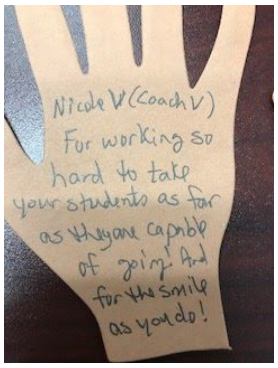
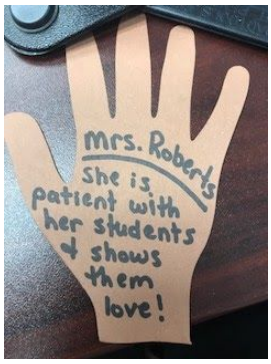
November 2017 Board Report

A Note from Mrs. Flatt: The first quarter flew by so fast, we can hardly believe that it is almost Thanksgiving. I am so proud of the work of our teachers and students at AGS. Our month ended with 98% of our parents attending parent-teacher conferences. I was able to sit in on several conferences and I was very pleased with the collaboration and teamwork going on between our parents and teachers. Our Title teachers set up reading and math games and activities for our parents, along with snacks and prizes. The PTO treated our teachers with dinner both evenings. It was very much appreciated.

As volleyball and football came to an end, we have already begun girls and boys basketball and wrestling. I was able to attend the girls volleyball end of the year celebration and enjoyed spending casual time with the girls getting to know them better. What a great group of kids.

Thanksgiving: Throughout the month of November, the staff has been encouraged to give their colleagues a "Pat on the Back" to help recognize the great things going on at AGS. I have embedded some of the comments we have received. The "Pat on the Backs" are displayed in the building on the #Kindness poster. Stop by sometime and take a look. It is quite impressing. We are thankful for our dedicated staff at AGS.





Leadership: There are nine staff members who are being evaluated this school year. All of them will have their first formal observation completed this week. As an emphasis during this observation, I have been identifying higher order questions both asked and answered by the teacher/student. I have also done a teacher/student interaction chart. This has allowed the teachers and I have to have some good conversations about both higher order thinking and proximity and interaction with their students.

Enrollment: Total:

Pre-23	1st- 20	3rd - 21	5th - 16	7th - 24
K - 25	2nd - 21	4th - 27	6th - 25	8th - 28

Instruction: Teachers are working diligently to incorporate technology into their daily lessons. We continue to collaborate with our colleagues on new ideas and tips on using the Smartboard. Two of our teachers attended a SmartBoard training at Greenbush last week and came back with some helpful tips and ideas. They will share those tips and ideas in their PLC's during the month of November.

Activities during October/November:

- Grandparents Day Program
- K & 1st visited the pumpkin patch
- K - 3 visited the fire station
- P/T Teacher Conferences
- Junior High Strike Party

Habits of the MInd

Have your students been coming home talking about the Habit of the Mind? We hope so. Habits of the Mind are an identified set of 16 problem solving, life related skills, necessary to effectively operate in society and promote strategic reasoning, insightfulness, perseverance, creativity and craftsmanship. The understanding and application of these 16 Habits of Mind serve to provide the individual with skills to work through real life situations that equip a person to respond using awareness (cues), thought, and intentional strategy in order to gain a positive outcome.

Our November's H.O.M. are: Metacognition & Striving for Accuracy, Questioning & Problem Solving.

BGS Christmas Program

The school year is flying by and our Christmas program will be here before we know it! The program is scheduled for Monday, December 18th at 7:00 p.m. It will be held in our Bartlett Grade School Gym. The Kindergarten through 8th Grades will be singing a number of your holiday favorites, including "Winter Wonderland" and "Have Yourself a Merry Little Christmas." The Jr. High and Fifth Grade Bands will also be performing during the evening's concert.

This performance is part of your child's music and band grade so attendance is very important. If circumstances arise that your child will be unable to attend, please contact us before the program and your child will be given a make-up assignment.

We are excited about this fun evening and are looking forward to seeing you there.

HEALTH ALERT!

Cold and Flu season is just warming up, so remember this time of year the added importance of good hand washing. Please encourage your child to use warm water with soap and scrub for as long as it takes for them to sing "Happy Birthday" twice, making sure they get between fingers, wrists, and backs of hands too. While hand sanitizer, vitamins, and flu shots are great, hand washing is the single best way to prevent the spread of germs

Basketball Season is Here!

Basketball practice begins today Nov. 1st from 3:15 to 4:45. Sixth grade has been invited to join this year's teams. Students must have a physical on file before they can practice. Coach Swanwick and Coach Waugh look forward to working with your kids.

Habits of the Mind

One component of the Kansas Career and College Ready Standards we are implementing is something called the "Habits of the Mind" or HOM. In September students were taught how to "Persevere" and "Manage Impulsivity". In October we worked on "Listening with Understanding and Empathy" and Thinking Flexibly."
Our HOM's for November are "Thinking about your Thinking" and "Striving for Accuracy". We will be stressing these "habits" with talks and discussions.

Colder Weather

As cold weather approaches, please be mindful of what your child wears to school. We will be going outside for recess unless the temperature is extreme. If you need a coat for your child please contact the office. It is also time to put away the flip-flops until warmer weather.

Parent/Teacher Conferences

One of the best indicators of a great school is the amount of parent involvement it has. Our Parent/Teacher conferences were held Tuesday, October 24th and Thursday October 26th. Thank you for the great effort you all made in making it to your conferences. We usually have above 95% attendance each year. Working together for your child we can achieve great things.

Site Council

The Meadow View Site Council will meet again on Tuesday, November 7th at the District Site Council meeting. We want to thank everyone who participates in our meetings. Our next building Site Council meeting is scheduled for February 6th.

Title I Notice

As a school-wide Title I program we are required, at the beginning of every school year, to tell parents they have a right to request the following information about the professional qualifications of their children's teachers.

In addition, USD 506 must notify parents if their child has been assigned, or has been taught for four or more consecutive weeks— by a teacher who is not highly qualified.

It is not the intent of USD 506 to use teacher data as a means of drawing attention to teachers or create questions as to the competency of a school's teaching staff. Rather, it is our intent to provide this data as a means of working together in upgrading teaching skills and improving instruction.

Helping Hands

Helping Hands assist the staff with the preparation of materials for the classroom. Volunteers are asked to devote an hour or two one morning or afternoon a month to assist with cutting, copying, laminating, etc. If you are interested in joining Helping Hands please contact the office at 421-1857.

Veteran's Day Parade

The Meadow View band will not be participating in the Veteran's Day parade this year since it will be held on Saturday, November 11th. However, students and their families are encouraged to attend this special event in honor of those who have bravely served our country.

Spelling Bee

The Meadow View spelling bee was held Thursday, September 21st. Our top three placers were Mackenzee Willey, Corbin Smith and Justin Tobel. Makenzee participated in the County Spelling Bee in Oswego.

P.T.O. NEWS

The Meadow View students and parents were able to sell over 1,330 dozen Krispy Kreme donuts. That means we made over $9,000 profit. That is amazing. Thank you Falcon Family for helping us raise money for our school!

State Assessments

State assessment scores from last year are in and available for parents per request. Please contact Mr. Kastler if you want your student's scores.

  Higher Academic Scores- Studies have shown eating breakfast at school results in higher test scores.

  Convenience & Value for Parents- School breakfast is ideal for busy families trying to get out the door quickly in the mornings. And at an average price of less than $2 per meal, it's a great value too!
- Title 1 information-

As a school-wide Title I program we are required, at the beginning of every school year, to tell parents they have a right to request the following information about the professional qualifications of their children's

Also, ASVAB results are in and we will be doing interpretations after Thanksgiving break, and pre-enrolling for Spring Concurrent classes. We have approx. 140 students participating in the concurrent offerings.

-Band Geeks is going full steam right now in the technical theatre classes where we are trying to get the set completed.
-In my advanced theatre class we have been blessed to have Deborah Yarchun a playwright schooled at NYU on loan to us from the William Inge Center for the Arts. She has been teaching us since September three days a week and we will perform our 10 minute plays on November 18 in the Black Box theatre for the community.
-In theatre 1 students are beginning to work on acting scenes. They have all read a full length play and are starting to understand methods of acting, and how to perform in front of people.

Sean Price – Strength and Conditioning:
Strength and Conditioning has 117 students enrolled this semester and after our 1st nine week testing we averaged 41 lbs of gain in our 3 core lifts of bench, squat and clean. Kids are doing a great job of working on their technique and I expect those numbers to keep increasing.

Catherine Dean – English:
-Comp I - These students are busy creating an exemplification paper where they create a thesis based on a belief or issue in order to provide sufficient evidence that supports their position or stance to the reader. In addition, it is time for their novel reading, Frankenstein, to for match up with watching the film version in order to critically write a text evidenced Compare or Contrast paper. This involves gathering cited evidence, synthesizing, and critical thinking skills to create a college ready 8 page paper.
-Language Arts - Students have read "Rainy Mountain" by N. Scott Momaday concentrating on his use of archetypes in discussing his journey back to his Kiowa roots and the historical decline of the Kiowa people. They are in the process of identifying some cultural aspects of their own life that may change in the next 23 years (2040) and how they might explain that change to the younger generation. They will write a narrative incorporate some archetypes into explaining the ever changing world around them.

Marty Warren - Electronics Technology:

-Foundations of Electronics- Students are finishing up basic circuits and components. We will begin the series, parallel, and series-parallel circuits in a week.
-Emerging Technologies- Students have worked on the basics of power supplies and are beginning to study transistors which leads to amplifiers.
-Digital Electronics- Students are beginning the ways to integrate different families and sub-families of Digital Integrated Circuits.
-Advanced- Students are working on projects with consumer products, Vex Robot, Arduino micro-controllers, and some PLC's!
-On Thursday, Oct. 26, 18 students went to LCC manufacturing days. Students met with several industries and did networking with the different businesses. We toured LCC and also Flesh Industries.
-Megan Hyatt was elected as a State SkillsUSA officer. She will be attending several leadership conferences. One will be Nov. 2-4 and Dec. 1st and 2nd.
-Electronics Advisory board will be meeting at Tank Connections with approximately 20 attending on Nov. 7th.

Lewis Goins - English

-In English I Honors, students are completing a short review of basic grammar concepts before we dive into Homer's Odyssey. We recently finished reading a series of short stories, essays, and poems centered around a common theme and writing an essay analyzing how the various writers addressed the common theme.
-English IV students are beginning a study of George Orwell's 1984, and are contemplating the aspects of contemporary society that mirror some of Orwell's dystopian vision. Along the way we'll refer to civics through a comparison of our Bill of Rights to the novel's society, as well as learn the basic aspects of communism, socialism, and capitalism, and read and respond to descriptions of modern technology that infringes on our privacy.

Kim Hawks - Business

The Labetta staff produced their first ever podcast! Students have learned why a podcast is a component of communication, how podcasts are recorded and edited and then uploaded to the internet. The staff has produced two episodes so far:

- The first was an introductory podcast, telling listeners what IS a podcast and also introducing the Labetta staff. You can listen on:
  - https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2dI9mUJvTgE
- The second was all about Halloween. You can listen on:

On Wednesday, November 1, 2017, 10 FBLA members and I went on a field trip to the Bass Pro Shop in Springfield, MO. We heard an educational talk and took a business tour of the store given by the assistant general manager, Pete Duchrow. We also went to three free museums within the store -- the Bass Pro Shop historical display, the NRA Firearms Museum, and the Archery Museum.

The talk we heard from Pete Duchrow was engaging and interesting. He began by explaining to us that many of the items for sale in their store could also be found at Wal-Mart and Academy Sports and Outdoors, however, Bass Pro Shop wants to provide a "shopping experience" for their customers. All of their marketing efforts from their displays to hand-painted walls and ceilings to the free activities they provide (like pictures with Santa, or the museums) are meant to be like a tourist attraction for their customers. He took us all over the store pointing out retail displays, live animal exhibits, and giving us an account of the founding of the original store.

I asked the students to send to me a fact or something interesting that they learned. They were to finish the phrase, "I now know…" Below is a table of their responses.

Student Name	Student Response
Logan Meyer	I now know that Bass Pro started out in liquor shop that Johnny Morris' dad owned. He collected fishing lures from many locals who made them and sold them in a stand in the shop
Lauryn Gilpin	I now know that Bass Pro Shop bought Cabela's.
Jade Davis	I now know that Bass Pro Shop uses common marketing practices to expand their target market.
Ali Hinman	I now know that all the walls in Bass Pro Shop are hand-painted images.
Dante Sexton	I now know that Bass Pro Shop started out in his dad's liquor store and built its way up from there.
Noah Grady	I now know how they transfer fish from tanks and how they maintain their tanks.
Daphne Hedrick	I now know that it takes thousands of gallons of water for the Bass Pro fish tanks.
Jackson Gilpin	I now know the pictures on the walls are hand-painted .
Kolby Myers	I now know that Bass Pro Shop started in a liqueur store.

Caleb Myers	I now know that the first Bass Pro Shop was in Springfield and how they get customers into the store with photos.

Kim McMunn – Health Careers:

-Health Careers Overall—We were able to get some chromebooks with Perkins grant money. This will enable me to have students do more research and use google classroom. Had a group of students 10-12 grades that attended field trip to Greenbush. KU had 7 different professions they could rotate through to learn about and ask questions.

-HS I—Have been studying the infectious process with information on how to protect themselves, their patients and the community. Recently each student had a communicable disease to research and what vaccine is given to prevent. They then shared it with the class so all students could learn of the many vaccines available.

-HS II—Students are now learning medical terminology which includes prefixes, suffixes and word parts so when they see a medical term they don't know they are able to break it down to smaller parts and determine what it means. They are also doing a wheelchair project. During this the student has to pretend they are paralyzed from the waist down and follow a course around the school that takes about 20 minutes. After the "trip" they must write a reflection of what they learned and how they think being confined to a wheelchair would affect their life.

-HS III—Job shadowing at Labette Health is in full swing. We are blessed to have Labette Health. Their staff has been so welcoming to the students and willing to teach them as they observe. If you have opportunity to talk with anyone employed there please express our thankfulness. Students observe in many different areas and see many different procedures. Then they have to complete a journal telling me what they learned each day. It is nice to read them and see all they are learning.
HS III and HS IV were able to take a field trip to Ortho Four States in Galena to see a different type of health care system.

-HS IV—After meeting with the staff from Labette County Health Department we have made plans to teach at AGS regarding personal hygiene, handwashing, dental care, nutrition and exercise. Students have been putting information together and working on posters to use in their presentation. This project will take a while because the students are also involved in online classes from LCC. We hope to start doing the teaching in December at AGS during our grizzly time.

Labette County High School engage in Manufacturing Day

On October 26, 2017, the Labette County High School Electronics Program participated in the Labette Community College's Manufacturing Day event. Students exposed approximately 25 businesses, toured Labette Community College, and completed the day by touring The Flesh Company in Parsons, Kansas, which is a manufacturer of legal forms and documents.

Julie Oswald – Math:

-Geometry- We have finished our second chapter on Logic and Reasoning. For their project, the students created their own "logic story". Using their knowledge of conditional and converse statements, they each created a short book on the topic of their choice. They all did a really great job! I was very impressed by their creativity and knowledge from chapter 2. Now, we are currently in the middle of our 3rd chapter on parallel and perpendicular lines. The kids are working hard every day!

-Algebra 1- We recently finished our 3rd chapter on graphing linear equations. The class created their own "stained glass" pictures by graphing linear equations. They all did a great job with this project. We have now moved on to chapter 4. Using their knowledge from graphing linear equations, we are now able to write the equations of those lines. Many times, students struggle with this chapter, however, this class has continued to excel! I am very proud of them!

-Algebra A- In the last month, these classes finished their chapter on inequalities. They all did a great job and continue to impress me daily! We are currently beginning our chapter on graphing linear equations. We have looked at the coordinate system and how to plot points. They have also began to look at graphing linear equations by creating tables.

-Every day all of my students are working hard! I am proud of everything they have accomplished this year!

Marcie Ryan – JAG-K

During October, the JAG-K program held it's Annual Initiation and Installation (I&I) Ceremony. We had 34 out 42 students attend (awesome turnout) along with State Representative Proehl, Senator Goddard, and school board member, Dr. Smith and her husband, Patrick. We also competed in the JAG-K Leadership Development Conference in Salina in various competitions such as Employability Skills, Public Speaking, JAG-K State President and Secretary. The students worked very hard to prepare for the competitions and even though they did not place in their events, they did an amazing job. These four LCHS students also attended various leadership breakout sessions while attending the LDC.

Kyle Zwahlen - Ag

National FFA Convention Accomplishments:
-Conduct of Chapter Meeting team: Placed in the Silver division - Team consisted of Hannah Graybill, Cloey Jones, Auston Barragar, Lauran Perry, Haley Green, David Rohling and Luke Falkenstien. Cloey Jones scored a perfect on the written exam portion of contest.
-Agricultural Communications team: Placed 5th in the Nation, which is the Gold Division. Team consisted of Becca Bogner, Bianca Hernandez, Mallorie Keltz and Aubrie Sorrell. Team was coached by Emily Zwahlen. Individually, Bianca placed 6th in the Nation.
What is Going on now in Mr. Zwahlen's classes:
The Milan Wiley Memorial Feed Test is currently being held, several students our preparing for the district parliamentary procedure contest and students are working on their Ag speeches.

Greg Traxson - History

Honors U.S. - Students are currently working on their Historical Essay "Do Urban Legends/Myths have an impact on society". This research and writing project requires the students to find an urban legend from early American history before 1900, and then a modern urban legend since 1900 and argue or defend the influence of such tales on society. Supporting the research students are required to watch and analyze the movie "The Village" by M Night Shyamalan. The rest of the month we will be studying the Early National Period, Constitution, and Westward Expansion.
Senior World Seminar - October was insanely busy. All 3 seminar classes completed their class project which they created, designed and implemented. 2nd Hour spent several weeks preparing the old cafeteria/drama rooms into a haunted house. They worked it for 2 nights totaling about 6 hours and made over $1000.00 dollars for the troops. This Wed. (11/8) they will go to Walmart to purchase items for care packages and plan to send those out before Thanksgiving. 4th

Hour's project was focused on School spirit and climate. It was a Senior week theme and they designed spirit days, a pie in the face contest between Mr. Holtzman and Mrs. Brothers to raise money for BARKS Animal Shelter. They raised almost $100. 00 dollars and Mrs. Brothers got the pie. When asked about the outcome Mrs. B said she thinks the Russians were behind it while Mr. Holtzman denies the claim and believes that someone put their money in the wrong bucket by accident. The class also promoted a canned food drive, built a time capsule for the Senior class and hosted a class "Bumper Ball" competition. 6th Hour chose to impact our local Senior Citizens and created a "Reverse Trick or Treat" activity where they delivered small gifts and goodies to local nursing homes. Items included socks, puzzle books, lotions, playing cards, and holiday decorations as well as a variety of snacks and treats. As well as their class projects most students have completed their interview project of a senior citizen/grandparent and are now working on their November Choice projects. I have been seeing some great ideas and projects generated by these seniors. I have attached a few images of some of these projects.

As a side note. The classes would like to recognize Ms. Heather Boss our class para as she has put in a lot of extra time and effort assisting all classes with their projects!

Section 1: Amendments to Current State Policy Positions

Motion 1: Financing Schools, B. State School Finance, 2. Adequacy, b. should be amended to read as follows:

b. Foundational funding should include additional funding for the full cost of full time kindergarten students and expanded funding for ~~preschool~~ early childhood programs. It should also support additional staff if necessary to effectively implement individual career plans and meet the social and emotional needs of each student.

Motion 2: Financing Schools, B. State School Finance, 3. Equity, c. should be amended to read as follows:

Capital costs should continue to be the responsibility of local districts through local bond issues and capital outlay levies, provided both receive state equalization aid that meets constitutional standards of equity. Arbitrary limits on the amount of school district bond issues should not be imposed.

Motion 3: Financing Schools, C. Revenue Sources and Tax Policy, 4. Property Tax Abatement should be amended to read as follows:

KASB supports ~~legislation to limit the authority of the state, cities and counties to grant property tax abatements to existing property valuation. KASB also believes school district approval should be required before abatements of school district tax levies are granted to newly created valuation and that state approval should be required before the state-imposed minimum levy is abated.~~ current law on property tax abatement with the following exception: local school boards should be able to grant approval for abatements to the capital outlay levy if the board supports the project receiving the abatement.

Economic development projects should include a notice to local school boards and consideration of the impact on local school districts, including enrollment growth, impact on facilities and funding.

Section 2: Amendments to Current Federal Policy Positions

Motion 4: KASB Federal Policies should be amended to read as follows:

A. Federal Aid to Education

1. Funding for federal programs. KASB supports increased federal funding for all federal programs that require improvements in student achievement. KASB believes the federal government should fully fund federally mandated education programs. Full funding of special education requirements should be the first priority for new federal spending.

2. Distribution of federal funding. KASB believes all general assistance federal funds should be channeled to local districts through the Kansas State Board of Education. Targeted incentive and grant program money should be distributed directly to local districts. Any advisory committee that determines distribution formulas for federal funds should have school board representation. KASB supports efforts to increase the share of federal aid to Kansas, which currently ranks very low in federal aid per pupil.

3. Accountability. Accountability for federal programs should be based on student ~~academic~~ performance. The federal government should not regulate curriculum, employment, discipline or other management decisions of local school boards.

B. Federal Collective Bargaining Law. KASB opposes any federal legislation concerning public employee collective bargaining.

C. Federal Tuition Tax Credits and Voucher Systems. KASB opposes legislation that would use ~~tuition~~ tax credits or voucher systems to aid private elementary or secondary schools.

Section 3: One-year Resolutions

Motion 5: Adopt the following one-year resolution on Priority Federal Issues

1. Use of public funding for private education

KASB opposes federal action to use public funding, directly or through tax credits, to support schools that are not required to accept all students on the same basis as public schools; are not required to meet the academic, performance and financial accountability standards of public schools; and are outside of the system of both local and state oversight. KASB further opposes federal action that would require or disproportionately provide benefits to states that adopt programs to aid such schools.

2. Every Student Succeeds Act Implementation (ESSA)

KASB supports full funding of ESSA to achieve the goals of the program, including continuation of funding of Title II to support effective teaching; and supports federal assistance for the development of appropriate student assessments.

3. Opposition to Unlawful Expansion of Executive Authority

KASB opposes expansion of executive authority through federal agencies in the absence of authorizing legislation.

4. Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA)

KASB supports reauthorization of the Individual with Disabilities Education Act in a way that maintains a balance between the student and family and the school district in determining the appropriate services to be provided and opposes changes that would unduly increase costs and requirements that do not directly impact educational outcomes for students. KASB urges consideration of the recommendations of the National School Boards Association.

5. Federal Impact Aid

KASB supports authorization and full funding of Impact Aid to local districts.

6. E-Rate and Education Technology Gaps

KASB supports continuation and modernization of the E-rate program to ensure equitable access to telecommunications, broadband and high-speed learning options for schools, students and their families.

7. Childhood Nutrition

KASB supports reauthorization of the Healthy, Hunger-Free Kids Act in a way that increases flexibility for local districts in providing healthy meals to children and families. KASB urges consideration of the recommendations of the National School Boards Association.

8. Student Privacy Data

KASB supports revision of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) to address the 21st century needs of students, school districts, parents, state education agencies, and federal education policies without compromising the protection of stakeholders. KASB urges consideration of the recommendations of the National School Boards Association.

9. Educational Opportunity

School districts are required to provide educational services to, and are held accountable for, the education of all students, regardless of their legal status. KASB supports amending federal law to provide legal status to undocumented students who are long-term residents of the United States. KASB further supports full funding of the Migrant Education Program and amending that program to make funding available to educate children of migrant workers, regardless of their immigration status.

10. Medicaid Services and Health Care

KASB opposes changes in the federal Medicaid program that would reduce funding or eligibility for school-based special education services. KASB further supports state and federal efforts to ensure all children have access to health care services that allow them to receive education for lifelong success.

11. Federal Budget and Tax Policy

Funding for education is a critical national economic development imperative. KASB opposes federal tax changes that would require reductions in federal education aid.

Motion 6: Adopt the following resolution (paragraph numbers added for amendments):

Reinvest, Redesign, Results:

Continuing Improvement in Kansas Student Success

(1) The Kansas Supreme Court's ruling in Gannon V is an opportunity to take the next steps to reinvest in Kansas K-12 education, redesign schools to help more students succeed, and improve measurable results for high school completion, postsecondary participation and workforce skills as defined by the Kansas State Board of Education's Kansas Can Vision.

(2) The school finance formula in SB 19 has been accepted by the Court. The Legislature should now address the Court's adequacy issues by working with the State Board of Education and local school boards to develop a long-term plan based on the goals Kansas needs to achieve and a credible estimate of the resources required to reach those goals. Such a plan would involve a partnership between the three institutions with constitutional responsibility for K-12 education in Kansas, as well as higher education, other state agencies and local communities.

(3) The Kansas constitution mandates public schools and other institutions to provide for "intellectual, educational, vocational and scientific improvement." The Court is asking the Legislature to base funding on evidence of the cost of that improvement, using seven student "capacities" the Court and Legislature have approved.

Evidence of the cost of adequate funding.

(4) The Court noted that two previous studies commissioned by the Legislature and the recommendations of the State Board of Education indicated that more funding would be needed than provided this year and next. We believe there are at least three other indicators of adequate funding. First, historical patterns of educational funding and outcomes in Kansas. Second, funding in other states with higher outcomes than Kansas. Third, the cost of specific programs that have demonstrated success.

(5) Funding and outcomes in Kansas. For decades, educational attainment has been rising, which has provided more Kansans with higher income and reduced poverty. More Kansans are completing high school and postsecondary education than ever before. These trends must continue, based on projections showing an increasing percentage of jobs will require education beyond high school, from technical training to bachelor's degrees and beyond.

(6) For decades, Kansas has supported this improvement by funding increases that exceed the rate of inflation most years, enhancing programs to help more students reach higher levels. However, Kansas K-12 funding has fallen behind the rate of inflation from 2009 until the current year. Likewise, total K-12 funding as a percentage of total state personal income of Kansans remains far below the average level of the past 25 years, even after additional funding.

(7) Successful states. The most successful states in the nation, based on multiple measures of educational outcomes and attainment, provided significantly higher per pupil funding, even including the additional funding provided by the 2017 Legislature. Of significant concern is that Kansas funding per pupil has been falling compared to other states – especially the most successful states – at the same time Kansas outcomes have falling behind other states.

(8) The most successful states have several common characteristics: high teacher salaries, more instructional staff and smaller pupil teacher ratios, more support staff, and smaller average schools and districts.

(9) Targeted programs. Finally, Kansas districts have had success with specific targeted programs, such as expanded preschool, reading interventions, AVID, Jobs for Americas Graduates and many more. However, funding for these programs remains limited, far below the number of students who could benefit.

Recommendations

(10) KASB recommends the following proposals to improve student success and comply with the Gannon decision:

(11) Attract and retain qualified, effective educators and support staff

(12) Provide foundational (base) funding, adjusted for previous and future inflationary increases and reflecting higher achieving and peer states, that will to allow districts to recover lost purchasing power of salaries and benefits and provide compensation competitive with other states and professions. Consider setting a goal benchmarked to those measures.

(13) Fully fund the state professional development and mentoring programs to improve teaching and implement school redesign.

(14) Address higher education affordability for teacher education, such as tuition, scholarships, loan forgiveness.

(15) Continue efforts to develop opportunities for school districts to cooperatively improve health insurance benefits or reduce costs without reducing benefits. Any savings from such program should be retained by individual districts.

(16) Give all students opportunity to succeed

(17) Continue to increase funding for universal preschool programs, especially for low-income students, including Parents As Teachers; early Head Start, state funded preschool; ensure stable funding for early childhood programs currently funded by Children Initiative's Fund (tobacco settlement).

(18) Evaluate necessary funding levels for high risk students (foster care, trauma, homeless, crisis and mental health issues) and consider additional weighting factors or aid programs.

(19) Ensure adequate number of school counselors, social workers, and psychologists to address social and emotion issues.

(20) Fully fund special education at the statutory level of 92% of statewide excess cost; increase federal funding.

(25) Ensure an adequate number of counselors or career advocates to provide effective use of individual plans of study and assist in planning for postsecondary transition, especially for first generation college students.

(26) Support higher education funding to maintain affordability; specifically, fully fund the cost of tuition for high school students in postsecondary career technical education programs; address cost of fees, tools and assessments; and consider funding for high school students in concurrent enrollment academic courses.

(34) Evaluate the impact of the new fall election cycle for local boards compared to disadvantages under school calendar.

KANSAS ASSOCIATION OF SCHOOL BOARDS

Serving Educational Leaders, Inspiring Student Success

2017 Legislative Policies

Adopted by the KASB Delegate Assembly, December 4, 2016

Preamble

Kansas public education is governed by locally elected, non-partisan boards of education, citizens from varied backgrounds serving their district without pay and accountable to their district's voters for their actions. The constitution of the Kansas Association of School Boards provides the cooperative framework for school boards to work together in areas of mutual concern and for the best interests of Kansas school children.

The members of KASB believe that the system of local and state control of public education by boards is superior to other forms of central or national control, or to control vested in professionals. We believe that our system is a cornerstone of American democracy. Essential to that democracy and to the public nature of public education is the separation of church and state set forth in the Constitution of the United States, and we oppose any attempt to erode that separation through the public schools.

We believe that universal public education is a fundamental right that does and should provide for each person the opportunity to reach his/her potential. We are therefore committed to policies that promote continuous academic growth for each individual student. In Kansas, we will support these beliefs without exception for, as Kansas school boards, we know that the rights and responsibilities of citizenship in a democracy may become available to none unless they are used by all.

FINANCING SCHOOLS

A. Definition of Suitable Funding

The Kansas Constitution states: "The legislature shall provide for intellectual, educational, vocational and scientific improvement by establishing and maintaining public schools, educational institutions and related activities which may be organized and changed in such manner as may be provided by law," and "shall make suitable provision for finance of the educational interests of the state."

The Kansas Supreme Court has established that suitable funding must be reasonably calculated to have all public education students meet or exceed the Rose capacities.

A definition of "suitable provision" must reflect the changing needs of the individual and society. It must provide the resources necessary to:

(1) Meet state and federal law, state accreditation standards and other relevant regulations;

(2) Deliver programs and services required for students to meet state and federal performance standards; and

(3) Support the education of all students to become well-rounded citizens and successfully participate in the modern world, including such areas as health and safety, technical and vocational education, fine arts and student activities and other relevant public expectations.

B. State School Finance

A school finance system should have the following components:

1. Accountability

The school finance formula must support the State Board of Education's vision that an excellent school system must focus on helping each student succeed and setting accountable outcomes to measure that goal.

a. The formula must allow districts to meet or exceed the Rose capacities identified by the Kansas Supreme Court and adopted by the Kansas Legislature. To do so, it should also assist districts in improving district outcomes under the State Board of Education's Kansans Can vision: kindergarten readiness, higher graduation rates, more postsecondary participation, individual plans of study and social and emotional indicators.

b. The formula must be monitored regularly to ensure the state is meeting its responsibility to provide adequate and equitable funding.

2. Adequacy

The school finance formula must provide each student an equal opportunity to be college and career ready and recognize the additional needs of students who require special services. Adequacy should include the following:

a. A foundational amount per pupil, which should be significantly higher than previous base state aid per pupil to recognize the effect of inflation and mandatory costs that have been shifted to the local option budget.

b. Foundational funding should include additional funding for the full cost of full time kindergarten students and expanded funding for preschool programs. It should also support additional staff if necessary to effectively implement individual career plans and meet the social and emotional needs of each student.

c. The foundational amount should be adjusted annually based on changes in the consumer price index. In addition, this increase should be supplemented if necessary based on employment costs and other costs imposed by the state requirements.

d. In the transition to a new formula, no district should lose funding on a per pupil basis. Thereafter, if any district loses budget authority under the school finance system, the reduction should be phased in through some mechanism.

3. Equity

A new school finance formula must provide adequate and equitable funding as required by the Kansas Constitution. Such a formula would provide equalization to allow similar funding based on similar local effort.

a. The foundational amount should be adjusted to address differences in district student populations, programs or other factors based on evidence that demonstrates an impact on the cost of each student reaching educational outcomes as defined by the State Board of Education. At a minimum, these should include:

- Full funding of the costs of special education services required by federal and state law.
- The impact of poverty and other student risk factors, including concentration of poverty.
- The additional costs of teaching English as a Second Language.
- The additional costs of student transportation.
- The additional costs of career and technical education programs.
- Additional costs based on density and district size.
- Other adjustments as necessary based on evidence of cost differences.

b. Funding for the foundation level and adjustments should be fully funded by the state.

c. Capital costs should continue to be the responsibility of local districts through local bond issues and capital outlay levies, provided both receive state equalization aid that meets constitutional standards of equity.

d. An adequate foundation level should reduce the need for local funding, the cost of equalization and challenges of fluctuating local tax bases.

4. Efficiency

A new school finance formula must give local districts the responsibility to respond to unique community needs while encouraging efficiencies through cooperation among districts. Efficiency should include:

a. Locally elected boards should determine the most efficient way to spend resources to meet their specific student and community needs. The state should focus on results, not process.

b. Both school districts and the state would have greater predictability by using the previous year's enrollment or a three-year average for determining foundation aid, with the ability to appeal to the State Board of Education for funding for extraordinary costs.

c. Districts should be able to carry reasonable operating funds reserves for cash flow, enrollment changes, revenue shortfalls or delays and savings for large projects without incurring debt. If new limits on balances are imposed, districts should be given time to spend down to that level.

d. The system should provide incentives for sharing high cost programs on a regional basis and for voluntary district cooperation and consolidation.

5. Excellence

A new school finance formula must allow flexibility for districts to go beyond state requirements, foster innovation and promote improvement. Many communities want more freedom and flexibility to enhance their public schools.

a. Local boards of education should be able to authorize additional funding beyond the foundation level, provided such authority includes equalization that meets constitutional standards of equity.

b. The system should provide incentives for accomplishment of student outcomes or other policy goals, provided that foundational aid and equalization aid are fully funded and all districts have the ability to meet such outcomes.

C. Revenues Sources and Tax Policy

1. State Tax Policy

The state should strive to achieve from the major revenue sources, sales, income and property taxes, a balanced and equitable mix of revenues that are suitable to support public services, including funding for quality education. Taxes should be broadly based to ensure all Kansans share fairly in the cost of public services.

2. Tax Limitation

Arbitrary limits on state or local taxes should not be imposed.

3. School District Tax Exemptions

As political subdivisions, districts should pay no local, state or federal tax. A tax refund should be provided when contracted services such as student transportation would indirectly impose such taxes.

4. Property Tax Abatement.

KASB supports legislation to limit the authority of the state, cities and counties to grant property tax abatements to existing property valuation. KASB also believes school district approval should be required before abatements of school district tax levies are granted to newly created valuation and that state approval should be required before the state-imposed minimum levy is abated.

D. State Responsibility for Mandated Costs

KASB believes that whenever costs are incurred by local school districts that can be attributed to actions of any agency acting under state authority, those costs should be reimbursed to the school district by the State of Kansas. New curriculum and program requirements should not be imposed unless the change has received an independent cost study and additional funding is provided by the state or the change endorsed by KASB.

E. Tuition Tax Credits, Voucher Systems and Choice Plans

1. Public accountability for public funding

KASB supports voluntary efforts to experiment with public school choice plans, such as charter and magnet schools, provided those plans are approved by the local school board. However, KASB opposes legislation that would use tuition tax credits, voucher systems or choice plans to aid private elementary or secondary schools which are not subject to the same legal requirements as public school districts.

2. Tuition for out-of-district students

KASB opposes requiring districts to pay tuition for students to attend regular public schools outside of the district, charter school not approved by the district, or private schools (except for special education services.

MANAGING SCHOOLS

A. School Board Authority and Accountability

As the constitutional authority charged with the management of local schools, the school board is accountable to district patrons through the electoral process, and must be the final authority on local management decisions for expenditures, personnel, facilities and programs.

B. Employment Practice

1. Discrimination in Employment

KASB endorses equal opportunity in employment, regardless of race, religion, color, national origin, ancestry, age, creed, disability or sex.

2. "Fair Share" Fees

KASB opposes requiring any employee to pay a fee to a bargaining unit representative as a condition of employment.

3. Kansas Public Employees Retirement System

The employers' cost of any retirement program or benefits mandated by the state should be fully and directly funded by the state. KASB opposes making KPERS a non-contributory system. KASB believes the Legislature should consider changes in the KPERS system to reduce the need for state general fund support, provided that benefits remain appropriate to attract and retain qualified employees.

4. Unemployment Compensation

KASB supports legislation preventing temporary and part-time employees and employees with reasonable expectations of future employment from being eligible to collect unemployment compensation benefits from the school district.

C. Professional Personnel

1. Administrator Due Process

KASB believes the final decision on administrator due process procedures should be made by the local school board, subject to constitutional protections.

2. Teacher Due Process

KASB believes the final decision on teacher due process procedures should be made by the local board, subject to constitutional protections. KASB supports a cooperative effort with representatives of teachers and administrators to develop a due process system that protects the interests of all parties.

3. Employee Evaluation

KASB believes that the evaluation statute should include criteria based on the outcomes a district is accredited by, including student outcomes. Because school boards are held responsible for the development of district goals and objectives, the board must determine any additional criteria to be used in evaluating the performance of school district employees. KASB supports amending the statutory deadlines for employee evaluation in the first year to allow more time for evaluation process to be completed.

D. Professional Negotiations

1. Professional Negotiations Act

KASB supports the current professional negotiations act as amended by the 2015 Legislature. In the event legislation is introduced covering other school district employees that is satisfactory to KASB's Board of Directors, professional employees should be added to the coverage of such legislation so that all non-administrative employees would be covered by the same act. KASB further supports maintaining voluntary application of the PEER Act.

2. Performance Criteria for Teacher Compensation

Boards of education should have authority to deal with issues such as merit pay and differentiated staffing outside the professional negotiations process. Any plans for merit pay and differentiated staffing should be locally devised and not mandated by state legislation as part of the school finance plan or otherwise.

E. Cost Reduction

KASB supports legislation to allow school districts to reduce operating costs and increase operational flexibility.

F. Enrollment of Non-Resident Students

KASB believes that the decision to enroll students who are not residents of a school district should be made by the board of education of that district. If non-resident students are enrolled, they should be counted for funding purposes as if they were residents of the district. These provisions should apply to students who are not residents of Kansas.

G. School Construction Codes

Schools should have to meet and comply with standards approved by the Legislature involving uniform construction codes. In addition, school districts should use the standards in force at the date of selection of the design professional.

IMPROVING SCHOOLS

A. Accountability for Student Success

1. Accreditation and Assessments

KASB supports an accreditation and accountability system based on meeting or exceeding the Rose capacities as identified by the Kansas Supreme Court. State assessments should be used to identify students who need additional support and as indicators of school and student success, not as outcomes. Districts that fail to meet standards should receive support, and if performance fails to improve, state intervention.

2. Transition to Postsecondary Education

KASB supports improving preparation for postsecondary education through a system of individual plans of study, including recognition of additional requirements for postsecondary admission. KASB supports a standardized system for determining needs for remedial or developmental courses. School districts should not be held responsible for students who choose not to take high school course work to prepare for postsecondary programs.

B. Public Schools and the Community

KASB supports the authority of public schools to assist in providing educational opportunities before and after grades kindergarten through grade 12. We support public schools developing collaborative efforts with business, social services, and governmental agencies to promote learning; and to provide services and resources to the community.

C. Instruction and Services

1. Special Education Services

KASB supports the provision of special education services to exceptional children, as well as continuing to include education for gifted children in the special education mandate. State requirements and regulations for the provision of services to disabled students should not exceed federal requirements.

2. At-Risk Students

KASB supports comprehensive programs to deal with students who are risk failing regular education programs, regardless of why the child is at-risk. Our support extends from definition, identification and counseling to the development of cost-effective remedial and prevention programs. KASB supports programs to assist students who have dropped out or been suspended or expelled from school.

3. Early Childhood Education

KASB supports the goal of increasing kindergarten readiness by expanded school district early childhood programs and development of quality standards for early childhood programs.

4. Virtual Schools

School districts and interlocals should be authorized to provide virtual schools and programs. All such programs should meet the same accountability requirements as traditional schools.

D. Teacher Issues

1. Licensure

a. KASB supports a licensure system for teachers and administrators based on the demonstration of outcomes, including subject matter and communications skills assessments.

b. KASB supports licensure endorsements based on the developmental stages of students and an integrated curriculum with emphasis on the major disciplines. Administrative, school service and specialized endorsements should be granted for all levels of students served by the districts.

c. KASB supports an initial, conditional license for the first three years of service. License renewal should be based on performance, professional development and college-based programs.

2. Professional Development Training

KASB supports the promotion of professional development activities for school employees.

3. Alternative Licensure

KASB supports alternative routes to teacher and administrator licensure for those who have not received traditional pedagogical training in a college of education, including provisions for innovative districts.

E. Student Issues

1. Student Health and Wellness

KASB supports providing school districts authority to address the health and wellness needs of students, and to help students meet and exceed the Rose capacity of student self-knowledge of physical and mental health.

2. In-State Higher Education Tuition for Undocumented Immigrant Children

KASB supports legislation that would allow students who have attended Kansas high schools for a reasonable period of time and successfully completed a high school program and other requirements for college admission to pay resident tuition rates, regardless of whether these students are citizens of the United States.

3. Extra-Curricular Activities

a. KASB believes extracurricular and co-curricular activities should be supported as an integral part of education under the Rose capacities to prepare students for success, and should be available to all students.

b. KASB supports the authority of the Kansas State High School Activities Association and local boards of education to establish and enforce academic standards of participation for all students.

F. School Safety and Security

KASB supports evidence-based, cost-effective steps to foster safe and secure school environments,

GOVERNING SCHOOLS

A. State Board of Education

1. State Structure for Supervising Education

KASB believes the following constitutional provisions are critical:

a. The State Board of Education shall be elected.

b. The State Commissioner of Education should be appointed by the State Board of Education.

c. The supervision of all schools - preschool, elementary, and secondary schools – should be vested in the State Board of Education. KASB supports the constitutional powers of the State Board.

2. Election of State Board Members

KASB believes that there should be an odd number of state board members to prevent tie votes; that board members should be elected on a non-partisan basis; and that elections for state board members should be held in conjunction with elections for local board members.

3. Powers and Duties

KASB believes the constitutional responsibility of the state board for general supervision of public schools includes: school accreditation, state standards and assessments, professional licensure and enforcement of professional standards.

B. Local Boards of Education

1. School Board Powers

The State constitution requires that public schools be operated, managed and developed by locally elected school boards. KASB supports providing school boards with the general authority to take action in the best interest of the district, unless such action is prohibited by law.

2. Curriculum Authority

A district's curriculum should be established by the local board of education, not by state statute, as long as the district meets state accreditation requirements. KASB opposes efforts to directly or indirectly limit the board's ability to determine curriculum, library and other instructional materials.

3. School Board Advocacy

KASB opposes limitations on the ability of school boards and their employees to advocate on behalf of their district's interests. Reporting requirements and restrictions should be the same as non-governmental entities and state agencies.

4. School Board Member In-service

KASB Supports in-service training for school board members.

5. Site Councils

KASB supports the use of site councils to provide a formal advisory structure involving parents, business, community leaders and staff in the school improvement process, provided these unelected bodies do not supersede the authority of the elected school board.

C. School District Impact

KASB believes school board representatives should be included in any state-initiated planning, advisory or decision-making process that affects public education.

D. School District Organization

1. Structure and Boundaries

KASB believes that changes in school district structure or boundaries should be determined by local communities through the local political process, and opposes legislation that would directly or indirectly result in state mandated consolidation of school districts.

2. Cooperation and Consolidation

Because of the impact of school closing and consolidation, the state should provide incentives and remove impediments to these actions when local boards determine it to be in the best interest of the district.

3. Interlocal Cooperation

KASB supports incentives for expanding cooperative agreements and programs among school districts and providing districts greater flexibility to establish governing bodies for interlocal cooperatives. Districts participating in interlocal cooperatives should be represented by board members on any governing body.

E. Elections, Meetings and Records

1. School Board Elections

a. KASB supports electing school board members in odd-numbered years.

b. KASB supports non-partisan school board elections with primaries held when more than twice the numbers of candidates file for the same seat or seats to be filled.

c. KASB supports bringing school board candidates under the State Campaign Finance Act, so long as filing requirements may be waived if campaign income and expenditures are under a minimum amount.

d. KASB opposes limiting the number of terms a school board member may serve.

2. Employees Serving on School Boards

KASB supports the current prohibition on school district employees serving on the board of the district in which they are employed.

3. Open Meetings and Records

KASB supports the current requirements and exceptions in the Kansas Open Meetings and Kansas Open Records Acts.

F. Non-public Schools

1. Accreditation

KASB believes that all non-public schools should have to meet the same accreditation requirements as public schools.

2. Physical Examinations

KASB believes that students enrolling in non-public schools should have to meet the same physical examination requirements as public school students.

3. Participation in Public School Programs

Boards of education should determine the extent to which students who are attending non-public schools are allowed to participate in public school programs. The cost of participation by such students should be fully funded through the school finance formula.

G. Compulsory Attendance

KASB supports enforcement of compulsory attendance of Kansas school children, and seeks cooperative efforts among schools, law enforcement and state agencies.

H. Initiative and Referendum

KASB opposes a constitutional amendment providing initiative and referendum procedures to amend the state constitution and statutes.

I. Role of the Courts

KASB supports the role of an independent judiciary in enforcing constitutional provisions. We oppose either changing the selection process for judges or limiting the ability of the courts to enforce those provisions, which would weaken the traditional separation of powers in Kansas.

FEDERAL ISSUES

A. Federal Aid to Education

1. Funding for federal programs

KASB believes the federal government should fully fund federally mandated education programs. Full funding of special education requirements should be the first priority for new federal spending.

2. Distribution of federal funding

KASB believes all general assistance federal funds should be channeled to local districts through the Kansas State Board of Education. Targeted incentive and grant program money should be distributed directly to local districts. Any advisory committee that determines distribution formulas for federal funds should have school board representation.

3. Accountability

Accountability for federal programs should be based on student academic performance. The federal government should not regulate curriculum, employment, discipline or other management decisions of local school boards.

B. Federal Collective Bargaining Law

KASB opposes any federal legislation concerning public employee collective bargaining.

C. Federal Tuition Tax Credits and Voucher Systems

KASB opposes legislation that would use tuition tax credits or voucher systems to aid private elementary or secondary schools.

Responses to Essay Questions

1. Why are you interested in this position, and if nominated, what are your future plans?

I am excited by the opportunities that assuming a leadership position with KASB would provide to support an organization I greatly respect and to serve people across Kansas in support of public education. Public education has shaped my life in a profound way. It has been a focus of my professional interests as an attorney. Finally, as a parent I am deeply invested in the success of public education in my own community and I want to contribute to ensuring that opportunities are available for children across our state now and in the future.

I grew up in Atwood, Kansas, a small farming community in the extreme northwest corner of the state. I credit the encouragement and mentoring of an amazing group of educators in Atwood, and later in college and beyond, for giving me the courage and confidence to attend the University of Kansas, and later the University of Michigan Law School. Without their care and ability to see potential that I did not recognize in myself, I would not have pursued those dreams successfully.

As an attorney, my work with public schools has always been my passion. My legal and education policy work included issues surrounding curriculum, budgets, facilities, school governance, parental involvement, school finance adequacy and equity, and implementation of state and federal requirements related to special education and the Elementary and Secondary Education Act. I trained school staff on a variety of school law

Local School Board Participation

Shannon has served on her local board of education since 2011. Shannon is currently the board president, also served as president in 2014-15 and vice-president in 2013-14 and 2016-17. She has also been on the district's Policy Committee since 2011, the Board and Facility Planning Committee since 2012, the City of Lawrence Public Incentive Review Committee as the Lawrence USD 497 representative from 2011 to 2015 and as the board of education representative on the Lawrence Schools Foundation in 2012-13.

KASB Participation and Activities

Shannon has served as KASB Region 1 Vice-President since July 2016. She has also served on the KASB Nominating Committee as Region One representative in 2015.

National Education Participation and Activities

Shannon has not been active in national organizations, but has closely followed the work of the National School Boards Association and the status of public education issues at the national level. She is very interested in advocacy and leadership experiences in these areas.

Other Education-Related Activities

Shannon served as a Lawrence Public Schools Elementary Facility Vision Task Force member in 2010-11. She has also been active in the Langston Hughes PTO and on its Community Outreach Committee. Since 2011 Shannon has served as the board of education Site Council Liaison at many Lawrence schools.

Leadership, Professional or Community Service

Shannon has served as a Lawrence Memorial Hospital Endowment Association volunteer and been a fundraising volunteer for the Bert Nash Community Health Center.

She also serves on the board of directors of the neighborhood association and is a member of the Lawrence-Douglas County League of Women Voters.

Shannon is a member of the Georgia, Kansas and American Bar Associations.

issues, including good governance practices. In addition to these experiences, my work as an attorney gives me the skills to break down complex issues into the most important factors and identify solutions that meet the needs of our diverse school communities.

My three children attend public school (kindergarten, fourth grade, and seventh grade). As a parent and classroom volunteer, I have seen how policy, and board leadership and governance, impact classroom instruction and the experience that my children-and all children-have in our schools. I am eager to continue working to ensure excellence and opportunities for students across the state.

I understand the commitment I am making to KASB in seeking this position. Should I be nominated and elected in December, I am committed to seeking another term on my local board in 2019 so that I would be able to complete the full term of my KASB leadership service.

2. What is your vision for KASB?

Over the past six years, I have watched KASB cement its reputation as the go-to organization for accurate data and analysis of the issues facing Kansas public schools. As a member of the leadership team, I would work to support and further KASB's role as the voice of public education. This voice continues to be desperately needed in Kansas, as funding and tax policy will dominate legislative debate for the foreseeable future. KASB's valuable work helps boards of education and supporters of public education counter the false narrative of failing public schools.

Another area of emphasis would be exploring opportunities for KASB to expand and improve its service and training supports for school board members and local boards collectively. This could include new professional development opportunities for local board members. I would work to support the leadership team's efforts to expand the value that KASB provides to member districts through other services as well.

Finally, I would embrace further fostering relationships with policy makers and advocacy groups around shared priorities. Recognizing that KASB's priorities may not align with other interest groups on some issues remains important, but I believe it is even more important for education leaders to come together around our many shared priorities, so that we can amplify our impact on the policymaking process. These efforts require patience, communication, and clarity of mission around shared values.

3. In your opinion, what is/are the major issue(s) facing education in Kansas and what solutions would you propose?

I anticipate three major policy discussions to continue in the coming years, and particularly in the next two legislative sessions. First among these is school finance; unfortunately, I anticipate a continued debate over how to provide the remedy that is likely to be ordered as a result of the Kansas Supreme Court's upcoming decision in Gannon. More troubling, I anticipate that the tax policy recently enacted to fund even the very modest gains in school funding will be under attack from now throughout the upcoming local board elections and beyond. KASB must play a vocal role in sharing data and analysis that helps boards tell the story of their needs and how these policies impact their students.

Second, Kansas school districts will be tasked with implementation of KESA and the Kansas State Board of Education's Kansans Can! vision for pre-K-12 public education. The changes in accreditation, and the vision the State Board has adopted, are both very positive steps in moving student achievement and college and career readiness forward in Kansas. Implementation of such drastic changes in thinking will, however, be both challenging and complex. I believe KASB has an important professional development role to play in preparing school boards to lead their districts in fully and faithfully implementing these important initiatives.

Third, and finally, I anticipate that shifts in federal debates on education and other related policy/spending (such as Medicaid), will play a much larger role in our discourse than has been the case in the past few years. Early indicators from the federal DOE signal an intention to roll back many student-centered protections issued through guidance or otherwise. KASB can, and should, be focused on keeping school boards and education leaders apprised of developments at the federal level, on providing timely professional development opportunities to help boards best support all students, and on cultivating relationships with our congressional delegation and/or their staff that will allow KASB to effectively communicate its educational and policy priorities.

4. Describe other relevant experiences or activities which prepare you for this position.

In addition to my leadership experience as a USD 497 board member and my professional background, I have personal experience in both rural and urban schools that will inform my understanding of the varied challenges and opportunities of KASB's member districts.

I grew up in and graduated from a very small, rural school district, but I also attended in the Shawnee Mission school system for three years, worked with urban, suburban, and rural school districts when I lived in Georgia, and am now both a board member and a parent in Lawrence-these personal experiences form a broad spectrum of experience to draw from in effectively understanding, reconciling, and communicating the varied policy interests of the KASB membership.

To whom this may concern,

My name is Dawson Giager, and I have been given the opportunity to graduate early on the date of December 20th, 2017. I have worked to graduate at semester for three years now. At first it was because high school wasn't really my thing, I had a hard time enjoying it.

Now, my reason for wanting to graduate at semester is mainly because, I want to achieve things while I'm still interested. I plan on going to a technical school and getting my associates degree in either construction technology or diesel mechanics.

I believe that I don't need to have my life figured out. All my life, I've had people telling me I won't be successful. My goal is to prove them wrong by graduating early, and achieving things nobody thought I could achieve.

Sincerely,

To Whom It May Concern,

I have been a student at Labette County High School for 2 years. I have appreciated the education I have received here while being in foster care. While attending Labette County High School, I have also had a part time job at Sonic. It has been beneficial to me because I have continued to help support my family in Arkansas City. My mom is a single mother with children. It is very important to me to finish here at LCHS at the end of this semester in December. I need to return to Arkansas City to go to work full time to further assist my mom. Thank you for any concern in this matter.

Sincerely,

Tyresse Hardiman

To whomever it may concern,

I, David Allen Terhune, wish to graduate in December. As a foster child turning the age of 18, I will be moved out of my foster home and will begin living on my own. This will require me to acquire full time employment, which would disallow me to be able to be in school. I will be immediately employed in the United States Army. I will be living on my own and must support myself, which would be very difficult if I were attending school as well. I very much appreciate the time and consideration I will have been given for my needs to be met.

Sincerely,

David Terhune

Early Graduation

I wish to graduate early for several reasons, Mainly due to my health. Passing out in class has cause just more stress weather I have a paira with me or not. I believe that graduating early will decrease the stress that come with school and the hour to hour stress of large class rooms.

School is not only stressful when it come to keeping up with every class deadline but combined with my the dizziness and migraines from medicine school was hard too keep up with. Aside from all this I also have been having very much trouble on the social side, with bullying off and on school grounds. In the week alone i have been on vpl I have already noticed and felt the improvements. Such as a decrease in panic attacks and little passing out compare to daily at school.

I wish to finish at semester and as quick as I can so that i can focus on my health and pratice destressing myself as theory is helping with. All set aside this is not only good for me but good for the school, I will no longer be a distraction to class as i pass out.

Sincerely

Briaunna Wedding
