Curriculum

Science - 6th Grade will test over Wind and Ocean Currents this Wednesday.

Social Studies - We are currently learning about the first human civilizations.

English Language Arts - We are beginning our novel study of Number the Stars. We will focus on making predictions, character development, and plot structure.

Math - Students will begin reviewing Adding and Subtracting Fractions while learning Multiplying and Dividing Fractions.

Novel - We are still reading on the Egypt Game.

Landrie Callshir
STUDENT OF THE MONTH

Students working together as an early civilization gathering water, building a shelter, and providing enough food for their group activity as we begin our Prehistory Unit.
